Users can choose from predefined report periods – today, yesterday, last week, etc. – or select an exact date range from the calendar.

The data table gives detailed information organized in the following columns:

- Total Revenue – the total revenue for the period
- Total Cost – the total cost for the period
- Total Gross Margin – the difference between total revenue and total cost

The data table can be viewed by several parameters:

- Totals – total gross margin for the whole period
- Totals by Period – daily gross margin for the chosen period

All columns can be sorted as needed and the generated reports can be downloaded in .csv format or emailed.

Please note that all results in this report are displayed in base currency.
